About Our Impact

At Riverview Center, we are committed to providing free and confidential services to children and adults impacted by sexual violence across 14 Northeast Iowa counties and those impacted by sexual violence and domestic violence in 2 Northwest Illinois counties. Over the past 12 months, we've served more than 1,375 survivors, offering over 17,450 hours of advocacy and counseling. Among those served, 78% are differently abled, 25% currently face or have faced housing instability, and 23% are youth.

One child shared with their Riverview Center advocate, "I feel safe sharing my secrets with you," while another client, who had yet to tell their family their story, expressed, "I felt very safe and comfortable sharing things with you." The testimonials and affirmations speak to the trust we build with survivors, helping them reclaim their power on their healing journeys.

For over 10 years, we've supported thousands in the Cedar Rapids area. You and your organization can make a difference by partnering with us to continue this vital work.
